

OEFC Academy Announces Groundbreaking Long-Term Partnership with Invicto Futsal

OEFC Academy is proud to announce a groundbreaking long-term relationship with Invicto Futsal, making a significant step forward in the evolution of player development within the club.

This strategic relationship establishes futsal as one of many core components of OEFC Academy's weekly training curriculum, reinforcing the club's commitment to developing technically proficient, confident, and creative players. By integrating futsal into the foundation of the academy, OEFC continues to align its methodology with the demands of the modern game.

"This is just another major step in the direction we are taking our OEFC Academy, which who is the foundation to our club's success," said Michael Moritz, Academy Director. "Futsal will be a core tool for our development team, and this partnership with Invicto allows us to build something truly special for our players."

The collaboration also reflects OEFC Academy's broader vision of assembling a unified team of staff and partners fully committed to a shared philosophy and long-term development model.

Both organizations are excited about the impact this partnership will have on players across all age groups and are committed to delivering a high-level training environment that prioritizes growth, creativity, and a lifelong love for the game.

OEFC Academy and Invicto Futsal look forward to a strong future together as they continue to raise the standard for youth player development.
